

LESSON 4: HOW DOES KINDNESS SPREAD?

Materials: Because Amelia Smiled read aloud, Craft heading for each child, manila or white paper, pieces for example

Introduction	Read Aloud	Activity	Conclusion
T- I am so proud of all of you for being kind to each other! We have already learned so much. Today we are going to talk about what happens when we are kind! Think back to the video we watched. What things happened when they were kind? (others were kind, the world changed.) Today, we are going to read a book about how kindness can change the world!	Read Because Amelia Smiled. If you don't have the book, you can find it on Youtube! 😊  Use the links at the bottom of the page. T-Tell your shoulder partner what happened when Amelia smiled.	Now that we have seen what can happen when one person is kind, I want you to think about that! You have so much power in your hands and you really can change the world! Show students how to create the craft. Have students trace their hands or work with a partner. I want you to think of 2 ways you can be kind right now. Draw those things inside your hands. Then put your craft together.	T-We have learned so much about being kind, and I just know you are all going to change our school and your community with your kindness! Let's continue to catch each other being kind and spreading kindness!
